

Our clinical model is a collection of best practices, specialty resources, and collaborative action planning that ensures appropriate vocational and clinical intervention.

Work is Healthy philosophy

We help employees focus on their abilities rather than their limitations.

- ✓ Work is an essential part of healthy living
- ✓ Work provides a sense of purpose
- ✓ Work gives us a sense of control
- ✓ Work benefits the individual, the family and society

Returning to work has important sociological, in addition to clinical, benefits.

Interdisciplinary team

Our focused approach is centered on the individual.

Early intervention

We set the stage for optimal outcomes early in the process.

Employees

- ✓ Team of experts collaborate to promote optimal return to productivity
- ✓ Return-to-work support
- ✓ Social Security advocacy
- ✓ Speedy processing for routine claims

Employers

- ✓ Expert risk management
- ✓ Minimized lost time and productivity
- ✓ Improved employee morale
- ✓ Collaboration on accommodations and return-to-work planning

Specialized behavioral health management

We recognize that employees with behavioral health diagnoses have unique needs.

Dedicated case management for employees with behavioral health diagnoses

Specialized clinical resources include on-site Licensed Clinical Social Workers and Registered Nurses with behavioral health expertise. We also partner with psychologists, neuropsychologists and a board-certified psychiatrist.

Vocational services are available, enabling the employee and the employer to discuss possible accommodations.
